Allegro Moderato

PIANO

There'll come a time when you'll go a-way from here You'll miss the chow tin, the bean soup and the files There'll come a time when you'll You'll miss the Frau - lein who leave here with a cheer but when you get back home a gain in just a bout one week or had such dream - y eyes you'll miss the cheer - y bu - gle call You'll miss your la - ger most .of ten (You'll fe - el lone - some) You'll miss the old days, the hap py ones you knew and you'll all (Those great big schoon - ers) And when you hark back, the to the mem - o - ry of an fe - el might - y blue then there'll soon come a time when you'll ev' - ning mel - o - dy with its "Mus - ic" so sweet as you long for the Rhine — then you'll cheer up and "re-up" and beal it back a-gain (Its love — ly) stood at Re-treat — you'll be yearn-ing and burn-ing to get a un-i-form (You'll like it)

CHORUS

p-f On the Rhine when the stars are soft-ly gleam-ing In the pale moonshine — I love to tin-ger; yearn-ing, dream-ing On the Rhine In the gold-en sum-mer time There is some-thing there that makes me care and want to be there on the Riv-er Rhine Rhine. —
